

[Updated on 30th August 2016]

FGM Services in the East Midlands

Below are the Events that are coming up in East Midlands. If you have any events you want us to add please get in touch with us at nationalfgmcentre@bamardos.org.uk with the below information.

Organisation	Details	Website/Contact Details
Nottingham University Hospital	Specialist FGM Clinic. Open: (QMC) Thursday 13.30-17.00; (City) Thursday 9 – 12.	Antenatal Clinic, Hucknall Road Nottingham , NG5 1PB. Call on 0115 969 1169
MOJATU	The charity works with African and Caribbean in Nottinghamshire communities focusing on the empowerment of girls, women and young people through community engagement, media, education and health. Received funding for FGM work.	Visit the website or call on 01158457009
Lincolnshire Rape Crisis	We support women and girls who live or work in Lincolnshire, who are experiencing, have experienced or have been affected by any form of sexual violence (including FGM) at any point in their lives and are willing to engage in support/therapy relating to these experiences.	Visit the website here or call on 08003 345500
Stand Together	Stand Together is an action research project that is taking place at the University of Lincoln (UL) to tackle the issue of gender based violence. We are working in partnership with with third sector organisations and student societies/ student union at UL to roll out a university-wide prevention education programme, one of the first of its kind in the UK.	Visit the website

Somali Development Service	SDS was established to safeguard the well-being and human dignity of Somali people and other new arrivals in Leicester city through researches, education, advocacy, information, empowerment and support. SDS work with women who are affected by FGM and help to develop community advocates.	Visit the website here or call them on 01162 855888
Hidden Scars Project	Hidden Scars started in February 2015. It was started by Bethel Tadesse. Bethel is a student at the university of Northampton and started Hidden Scars in Northampton to raise awareness on female genital mutilation and with a strong passion for ending FGM.	Visit the website here

[Updated on 30th August 2016]